SPEND A SEMESTER IN ISRAEL

Welcoming teens from the Russian-Speaking Jewish Community

Open to teens in 10th-12th grades, Alexander Muss High School in Israel – Jewish National Fund (AMHSI-JNF) offers a comprehensive academic program that will enhance your college application and prepare you for college. Over four months, students learn the history, culture, language, and geography of Israel, while participating in comprehensive, in-depth General Studies classes.

$10,000 grants available to all teens of Russian-speaking families in addition to generous financial aid. Grants are taken off the full $21,800 tuition.

General Studies

Complete academic coursework in line with your local high school. You will:

- Work with our AMHSI-JNF team and your high school to ensure that after a semester abroad you re-enter your school classes right alongside your peers
- Take up to four General Studies classes, including regular, honors, and AP
- Get specialized on-campus tutoring for subjects that require extra academic help

Israel Studies

All sessions include our signature Israel Studies Curriculum. You will:

- Discover 4,000+ years of Jewish and Israeli history
- Travel around Israel, using the land of Israel as your classroom with interactive history lessons
- Attend a full semester of Hebrew language classes—no prior knowledge needed, all levels accepted
- Earn up to six college credits from the University of Miami as an eligible junior or senior

Special Features of the Program

As a student enrolled in our full semester program, you will:

- Travel to Poland and explore past Jewish life and experience today's Jewish revival
- Conquer Yam L'Yam, a three-day hike from the Mediterranean Sea to the Kineret (Sea of Galilee)
